

NATIONAL ORGANIZATION
OF FORENSIC
SOCIAL WORK

Training Overview

Start time	Sessions/Presenters
8:30am	Training context and training day logistics - Dr. Alexa Wasserman Overview of NOFSW – Dr. Stacey Hardy-Chandler (recorded video) Training themes and review of schedule – Dr. Anjali Buehler
8:50am	Ice breaker breakout rooms
9:10am	Guiding frameworks – Dr. Susan McCarter and Dana Prescott
9:40am	Barriers to re-entry – Dr. Wendy Champagnie Williams Mental health and medical concerns in correctional populations - John Cocco
11:10am	Break – 30 minutes
11:40am	Models for overcoming barriers to re-entry – Emily Abili
12:40pm	Overview of co-response best practices in law enforcement and social work – Dr. Anjali Buehler
2:10pm	Break – 20 minutes
2:30pm	Trauma-informed service provision for justice-involved populations – Dr. Ali Winters Vicarious trauma and wellness – Dr. David McLeod
4:15pm	Wrap-up

Time	Sessions/Presenters	Learning Outcomes
8:30am	Training context and training day logistics - Dr. Alexa Wasserman Overview of NOFSW – Dr. Stacey Hardy-Chandler (recorded video) Training themes and review of schedule – Dr. Anjali Buehler
8:50am	Ice breaker breakout rooms
9:10am	Guiding frameworks – Dr. Susan McCarter and Dana Prescott	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Define person-centered language and review examples of person-centered language in legal settings 2. Discuss contributors to structural racism and introduce

		the anti-racism stance of NOFSW <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Identify specific barriers faced by marginalized groups within the legal system
9:40am	Barriers to re-entry – Dr. Wendy Champagne Williams Mental health and medical concerns in correctional populations - John Cocco	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Review smart decarceration and its relevance to successful reentry efforts Recognize individual and structural barriers to the experience of reentry Explore and discuss the intersection of social identities and challenges to reentry and reintegration processes Explore medical and mental health challenges faced by individuals that are incarcerated Introduce Carl Rogers’ Three Pillars
11:10am	Break – 30 minutes
11:40am	Research-based solutions – Emily Abili	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Identify characteristics of successful re-entry programs Review research based practices relevant to the DAPO mission and guiding principles Demonstrate an understanding of frameworks and best practices for establishing working relationships with clients and community partners
12:40pm	Overview of co-response practices in law enforcement and social work – Dr. Anjali Buehler	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Review models of co-response used in social work/mental health and law enforcement settings and research on their effectiveness Discuss best practices for interprofessional collaboration Discuss participant past experience with interprofessional collaboration (breakout rooms)
2:10pm	Break – 20 minutes
2:30pm	Trauma-informed service provision for justice-involved populations – Dr. Ali Winters	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Apply the basic neuroscience that underscores the four trauma behavioral responses.

	Vicarious trauma and wellness – Dr. David McLeod	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 2. Articulate an understanding of the two causal pathways of trauma, ACEs and PTSD. 3. Formulate a foundation knowledge of trauma-informed care including safety, trust, collaboration, and empowerment. 4. Build the foundation of trauma-informed care in the practice phases of engagement, assessment, intervention, and evaluation. 5. Apply concepts of trauma to understand vicarious trauma and employee wellness
4:15pm	Wrap-up	