

We all have experienced difficult times throughout our life. We also experience crises that are not always predictable – the loss of a loved one, violence in relationships or being a victim of a crime. During these periods, the fears and emotional strain can often be more upsetting than the incidents themselves. It is at these moments that a social worker may be of assistance.

NO FEE FOR SERVICES

For questions or more information, please contact:

Angela Kenbok, MSW

(412) 737-2902

Hampton Township
Police Social Services

Hampton Township
Police Department
101 McCully Rd.,
Allison Park, PA 15101

Social workers assist following:

Violent crimes

Traumatic incidents or accidents

Death

Family conflict

Alcohol or substance abuse
issues

Psychiatric or mental health concerns

Domestic disputes/violence

Financial needs

Housing or homelessness

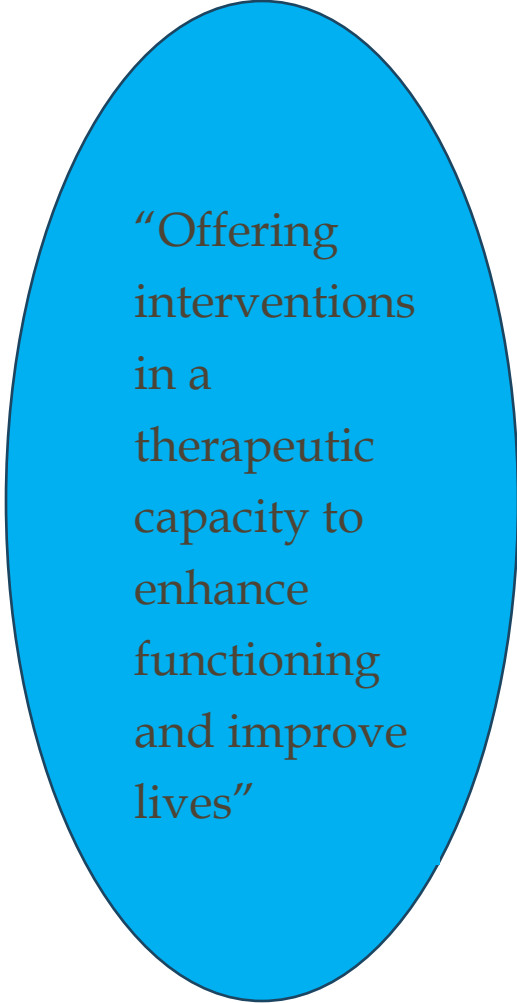

Hoarding

SERVICES

Social Workers can assist

by providing:

- Crisis Intervention
- Conflict Resolution
- Mediation
- Short-term Counseling
- Education
- Advocacy
- Consultation
- Skill-building
- Assessment
- Case Management
- Support Groups
- Referrals
- Information
- Court Accompaniment

“Offering
interventions in a therapeutic capacity to enhance functioning and improve lives”